Evolution of Computing

LUDLOW CIVIC SOCIETY

Mary Edwards
1750-1815

First female "Computer" lived and worked from 4 Brand Lane. She was employed by the Board of Longitude to compute astronomical tables for the British Nautical Almanac between 1773 & 1815
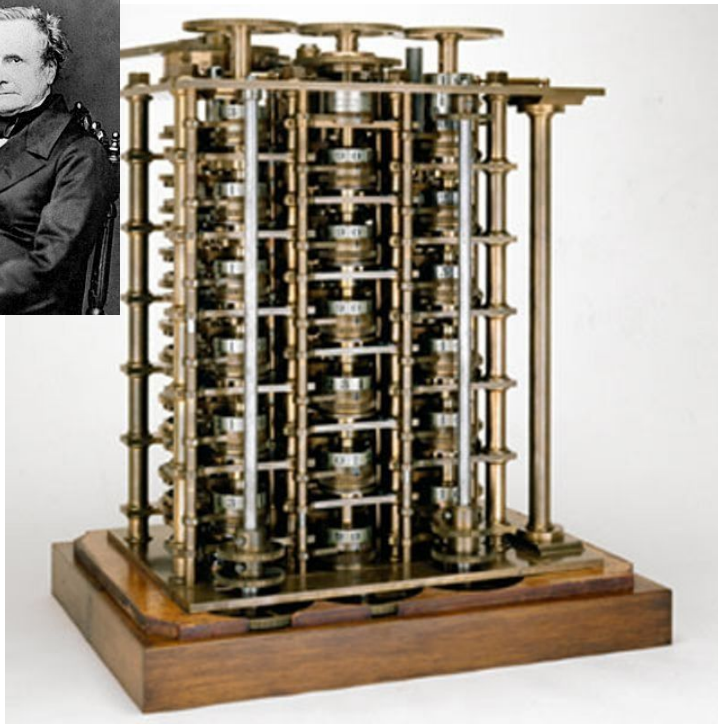

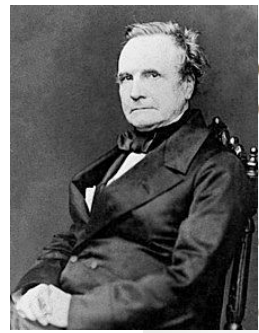

Charles Babbage

A mathematician, philosopher, inventor and mechanical engineer, Babbage originated the concept of a digital programmable computer

Ada Lovelace

The first programmer, she is credited with being the first to write instructions for the first computer program.

Alan Turing

Founder of Computer Science and Modern Computing

Grace Hopper

Pioneer of computer programming

Sir Clive Sinclair

Produced the first home computers at an affordable price

Sir Tim Berners Lee

Creator of the WWW

Can it become a reality?

Half of current jobs in the world are unlikely to exist in 2050

THE WORLD IN 2050

Human-Like Robots Are Emerging

Augmented And Mixed Reality Is Everywhere

Come to Code Club!